

Ben Pugh, Junior Sailing Instructor

Hello everyone, I am thrilled to announce that I will be joining the WBYC sailing coaches as a Junior coach. Some of you may know me but if not, my name is Ben Pugh and I have been sailing with WYBC for seven years going on eight.

I started in 2010 as just a small Opti but now, alongside Nathan Powers, am a captain of the 420-racing team and have been a C.I.T. in the past years. I have competed in several interclub races and regattas, am lifeguard certified as well as a volunteer firefighter in Maryland.

I have achieved many of the awards WBYC offers and have now chosen to take the next step and become certified to teach.

I look forward to meeting all of you and having a great season!

Ben Pugh
